

WOGI Institute 2010

Mark your calendars for June 10 and 11, 2010

Make plans now to join your colleagues at the 2010 WOGI Institute.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity!

Dr. Mary Slade will present "Best Practices in Gifted Education" at the 2010 WOGI Institute which will be held at the World Golf Village in St. Augustine. Dr. Slade is a Professor in the Department of Exceptional Education in the College of Education at James Madison University. Dr. Slade received her B.S. in Elementary Education with an emphasis in secondary English from Longwood College, and her Master's and Doctorate from the University of Virginia. She directs the gifted education coursework and the Pre-K-12 Add-On Gifted Education Endorsement Program at JMU, including the online coursework in this area. Dr. Slade is co-author of a staff development book in gifted education and co-editor of Aiming for Excellence: The NAGC Pre-K-12 Gifted Program Standards both published collaboratively by Prufrock Press and NAGC.

In addition, this year's six workgroups will present the results of their work on topics related to services for students who are gifted.

Special Information: WOGI grant funding will pay for one room for a one night lodging (June 10th) for a participant from each district. Please determine who will serve as the representative from your district then follow these instructions:

When: June 10, 2010 (2:00-6:30)
June 11, 2010 (8:30-4:30)
Where: Location:
World Golf Village
500 South Legacy Trail (Exit 323 on I-95)
St. Augustine, FL 32092
888-740-7020

Each participant must make his/her own hotel reservation with the World Golf Village. The grant will pay for one room for one night per school district. Extra charges made to the room will be the responsibility of the guest. (Please note -- Late registrations cannot be covered through WOGI.)

1. Call the World Golf Village by May 15 to reserve a room. Be sure to state you are with the UNF/WOGI Project.
2. Contact Laurel Stanley by May 15 to register your attendance for the 2010 WOGI Institute. Email: stal0008@unf.edu Telephone: 904-620-1074 Fax: 904-620-2358